

1. .What is Home Detention?

The Tempe Municipal Court may place/has placed you in a Home Detention electronic monitoring program in lieu of serving all of your incarceration in jail. This program is a privilege and not a right. It is important that you follow all of the program rules.

2. What does the electronic monitoring equipment do?

You will be required to wear a tamper proof, non-removable ankle bracelet 24 hours a day. This bracelet monitors your movement and helps verify you are home. This monitoring will be accomplished through a receiver that will be placed on your home phone land line. This equipment will also include an intoxilizer for you to submit a breath alcohol monitoring test at various times while at home.

3. How would you know if you are eligible for the program?

You will be referred to Tempe Human Services to be screened by a mental health counselor for risk of danger to self and/or others, past psychiatric history, and current emotional psychological stability.

4. When must I attend the Home Detention Orientation?

You must report to the Tempe Home Detention Screening and Assessment Services on the date and time stated on your Order to Attend Home Detention Screening and Assessment Session. If you cannot comply with this court order, you must go back to court.

5. How long will the Home Detention Orientation take?

The Home Detention Orientation consists of paperwork completion and a minimum 2 hour appointment with a counselor. The appointment normally takes 2 ½ hours.

* If the defendant is more than 10 minutes late for the Home Detention Orientation, the defendant will not be seen and the case will be returned to court.

6. How much does the program cost?

You must pay all the costs associated with the Home Detention Program. There is a $40.00 Home Detention Orientation Fee and $50.00 monthly monitoring fee (not pro-rated) amounting to a minimum of $90.00 due at the time of Orientation. If a client is on HD for more than 30 days they will be required to pay an additional $50.00 monthly monitoring fee for each additional 30 days of HD they are on.

i.e. 30-60 days = $140
60-90 days = $190
90-120 days = $240

The orientation may only be rescheduled once with a 48-hour advanced notice. The orientation must be rescheduled by the court. A $25.00 penalty fee will be added to the amount due if the appointment is rescheduled or missed. Payments can be made in cash, Visa, MasterCard, cashier's check or money order made out to the City of Tempe. No personal checks or American Express are accepted.

There is a $14.00 per day service fee (minimum $112.00) due to the Security Agency on the first day of your Home Detention. Your counselor will give you your total amount due on the day of your Orientation.

7. What happens if I do not appear for my Home Detention Orientation?

You will receive a notice of non-compliance from the Home Detention Program and a failure to comply report will be sent to the Court. The judge will order you to appear in court to show cause for why you should not be held in criminal contempt of court.

If you fail to appear for your court date, a warrant will be issued for your arrest.
